

Hi everyone,

A gentle reminder that the required textbook is available in the Barnes & Noble bookstore on campus. Or you can obtain one from wherever works for you.

Algorithm Design and Applications | Edition: 1

Author: Michael T. Goodrich, Roberto Tamassia

ISBN: 9781118335918

Publication Date: 10/27/2014

Publisher: Wiley

Regards,

p.s. The supplementary textbook is available on Moodle as an e-book. For copyright reasons, do not download or distribute the e-book. It is posted to Moodle for reading only. We will use it as a reference when we discuss AVL trees in about a month's time. The source for all other topics is the required textbook.
